

THE YORK SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA

CONCERT PROGRAM

SECOND SUBSCRIPTION CONCERT OF THE

SEVENTY-NINTH SEASON

“An Evening With Mario Frangoulis”

Robert Hart Baker, Music Director

John Eaken, Concertmaster

Norman Nunamaker, Assistant Concertmaster and Assistant Conductor

Strand-Capitol Performing Arts Center

Saturday, November 12, 2011 at 8:00 PM

Grateful Appreciation to Tonight’s Guest Artist Sponsor: The Horatio Alger Association

Guest Artists: MARIO FRANGOULIS, tenor
LISA WILLIAMSON, soprano

Mario Frangoulis, internationally acclaimed classical/cross-over tenor, will perform tonight with the York Symphony Orchestra with conductor Dr. Robert Hart Baker, joined by guest soprano Lisa Williamson.

The evening features songs from Mario Frangoulis' career, including his roles in musical theatre, from his personal recordings and albums "Sometimes I Dream" and "Follow Your Heart", and other albums. He will present for the first time songs from his new album "Beautiful Things" to be released this fall by Sony Classical. Artists' biographies are in this printed program.

Please consult your program insert for a list of songs to be performed. There will be an INTERMISSION, and Mr. Frangoulis will sign autographs and CDs immediately following the performance in the lobby.

Mr. Frangoulis' appearance in York is under the auspices of the Horatio Alger Foundation of Distinguished Americans, Inc., for whom he serves as International Ambassador. The evening will also include a salute to Horatio Alger Association Scholarship recipients.